

Volunteer Edmonton News Update – December 14, 2009

UPDATE: Accessing Police Information Checks

A recent advisory from the RCMP announced that Canadian private security firms are no longer able to access the Canadian Police Information Centre (CPIC) data. As a result, there will be some changes to the process for nonprofit organizations that access police information checks through private security firms. To learn more about this update, visit our Hot Topics page.

Community Spirit Program Deadline

Eligible nonprofit organizations will have until December 31 to apply for the Community Spirit Program donation grant. To view guidelines or to submit your application through their new online grant application system, visit the Alberta Culture and Community Spirit website.

Workshops in 2010

Get a head start on the new year and register now for upcoming training opportunities. Visit our Workshops and Events page to view workshops scheduled in January and February. We'll also be posting up information about January's Breakfast Series session shortly, so keep your eyes peeled for updates in the next few weeks!

Employment Opportunities on New Jobline

Start posting or browsing employment opportunities in the nonprofit sector on ECVO's new Jobline. The service is free for member organizations. To become a member or to view current opportunities, visit ECVO.

Edmonton Volunteer Receives 2009 Stars of Alberta Award

In a ceremony on December 4, eight volunteers were honored with a Stars of Alberta volunteer award for their extraordinary contribution. To view their bios and photos of the ceremony, check out the Alberta Culture and Community Spirit website.